Play competitive golf with your co-workers

Miners Golf Club is an exciting new golf club for people working in the mining and rigging industries.

- Play in weekly golf tournaments at two courses offering a range of prizes.
- Receive an official handicap without having to join private clubs and pay high fees.
- Receive discounted rates on golf.
- Play competitive golf against your co-workers and people from different mine sites.
- Qualify for official West Australian Golf League (WAGL) tournaments.
- Win the yearly Miners Golf Club Order of Merit for best individual player and best mine site.

- An official WAGL handicap.
- Special discounted rates at Burswood Park and Glen Iris on competition days.
- Discounts on food and drinks (including bar) at both courses.
- Discounts on golf lessons from a PGA professional at both courses.
- An official Miners Golf shirt (rrp $79 by Sparte Leisure).
- Ball marker tri-pack.
- All results, handicaps and leaderboards posted and updated weekly on the Miners Golf Club website - keep track of the competition even while you're away.
